Grand Laterary and A little Combination. Arrangements have been made to furnish the Knickerbocker Magazine, the Home Journal, and the New York Musical World and Fremont & Defiance Rall Road Times, to new subscribers, for five dollars a year! This is cheap literature with a vengeance. The Knickerbocker is $3 per annum; the Home Journal, $2; and the Musical World and Times, $3; making $8 a year at the usual rates. That three such works can be obtained for five dollars a year, is a fact truly worthy the Caloric age, which is just now being ushered in. Of the Knickerbocker Magazine, edited by Lewis Gaylord Clarke, it is unnecessary to speak. For twenty years it has been the most genial, humorous, and spicy "monthly" in the world; and the present volume will be better than any which preced it. The Home Journal, edited by Geo. P. Morris, and N. P. Dillis, is well known as the best family newspaper in America; and the Musical World and Times, edited by Richard Stores Willis, with Lowell Mason. Geo. H.
